WESTON FOREST receives Canada's Most Admired Corporate Cultures Award

Mississauga, Ontario

Weston Forest is pleased to announce that it is a recipient of the 2019 Canada's Most Admired Corporate Cultures Award, presented by Waterstone Human Capital.

"At Waterstone we believe corporate culture drives performance and that it's an organization's greatest asset," said Marty Parker, President and Chief Executive Officer of Waterstone Human Capital and Chair of Canada's Most Admired™ CEO Awards. "What's remarkable about this year's group of winning organizations is their commitment to corporate culture and their success in leveraging that culture as a competitive advantage. They each set a high bar when it comes to building great, high performance cultures that ultimately drive organizational growth and power the performance of their teams."

According to Steve Rhone, President of Weston Forest, "Culture is the secret ingredient to every great organization: it cannot be copied or easily replicated. This award acknowledges the people in our Company that create the culture that drives our success. On behalf of everyone at Weston Forest, we appreciate this recognition of our amazing team."
